

Best Glow-Inducing Supplement

ASTALIFT White Shield Drink

It's just like mum says: you are what you eat. And when it comes to achieving an enviable radiant glow, topical creams can only help so much. That's why a beauty supplement like ASTALIFT White Shield Drink is the reinforcement you need against dull and damaged skin. Recommended for daily consumption, the highly absorbable drink has up to 4mg of Nano Astaxanthin. These nanoparticles of Astaxanthin emulsion are formulated to boost your body's absorption rate by 1.6 times, so your skin gets even protection from harmful UV rays, and the nourishment it needs to repair sun damage. It also contains antioxidant-rich vitamin C for stronger skin, and the rare molecular Pure Collagen to plump up your skin from within. Above all, this beauty drink comes in a delicious peach and lemon flavour, so drink up!

The age-fighter

ASTALIFT White Essence Infil won the category of "Best stay-young-look-young serum" for good reason. This whitening beauty essence is fortified with the proprietary ingredient Nano AMA, vitamin C derivative and a newcomer Nano Oryzanol that boosts the product's efficacy by tenfold. Apply this lightweight serum daily to help prevent age spots and freckles, and restore a healthy glow to your complexion.

The brightener

The elegant scent of damask rose and the amazing texture of ASTALIFT White Bright Lotion might be the first things you love about this lotion but what you'll truly come to appreciate are the beauty benefits from arbutin, an ingredient responsible for creating translucent and glowy skin, and Nano AMA+, a refreshing source of hydration. Apply twice a day and enjoy the results!

The multi-tasker

Protect your skin from damaging UV rays with ASTALIFT White Perfect UV Clear Solution. It contains a proprietary UV protecting agent "D-UV Guard" that blocks UV rays (including deep UVA rays) to prevent incidental sunburn, while UV Action Capsule releases vitamin C when your skin is exposed to UV rays. The cap turns purple when exposed to UVA rays, and it's also a sweat- and oil-resistant makeup base that gives you radiant skin.
